- (i) granting permission unconditionally; or
 - (ii) granting permission subject to such conditions as it may consider fit; or
 - (iii) refusing permission;
- (b) without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing clause, the planning and development authority may impose conditions:
- (i) to the effect that the permission granted is only for a limited period and that after the expiry of that period, the land shall be restored to its previous condition or the use of the land permitted shall be discontinued;
 - (ii) for regulating the development or use of any other land under the control of the applicant or for the carrying out of works on any such land as may appear to the planning and development authority expedient for the purpose of the permitted development.
- (3) The planning and development authority in dealing with the applications for permission shall have regard to:
- (a) the provisions of the development plan or development scheme or land pooling scheme in force or under preparation; or
 - (b) any other material consideration.

- (4) When permission is granted subject to conditions or is refused, the grounds of imposing such conditions or such refusal shall be recorded in the order.
- (5) Any such order shall be communicated to the applicant in the manner prescribed by regulations.
- (6) In the case of a department of Central or State Government or local authority intending to carry out any development other than operational constructions on any land, the concerned department or local authority as the case may be, shall notify in writing to the planning and development authority, of its intention to do so, giving full particulars thereof and accompanied by such documents and plans as may be prescribed by the government from time to time, at least, thirty days prior to the undertaking of such development; where the planning and development authority has raised any objection pertaining to the proposals received under sub-section (2) in respect of the conformity of the proposed development either to any matter in sub-section (3) or to any of the building bye-laws in force at the time, the department or the local authority, as the case may be, shall:-
 - (a) either make necessary modifications in the proposals for development to meet the objections raised by the planning and development authority, or
 - (b) submit the proposals for development together with the objections raised by the planning and development authority to the government for decision. When proposals and objections have been submitted, no development shall be undertaken until the government has finally decided on the matter.

The government on receipt of the proposals for development together with the objections of the planning and development authority shall, in consultation with the Director of Town Planning either approve the proposals with or without modifications or direct the concerned department or local authority, as the case may be, to make such modifications in the proposals as they consider necessary in the circumstances.

The "Operational Constructions" of the departments of Central or State Government or local authority, as may be notified by the government from time to time, shall be exempted from the purview of the planning and development authority.

Appeal against refusal or conditional grant of permission.

- 46A. (1) Any applicant aggrieved by an order passed under sub-section (2) of section 45A may appeal, within one month of the communication of that order or if no order is passed, after the expiry of the period of three months from the date of submitting the application for permission prefer an appeal to the government or an officer appointed by the government, in this behalf in the manner and accompanied by such fees as may be prescribed.
- (2) The appellate authority, after receiving the appeal and after giving reasonable opportunity to the appellant and the concerned planning and development authority to be heard, may pass an order dismissing the appeal or allowing the appeal by:-
- (a) granting permission unconditionally; or
 - (b) granting permission subject to such conditions as it may think fit, or
 - (c) removing the conditions subject to which permission has been granted and imposing other conditions, if any, as it may consider fit.

Lapse of permission.

- 47A. Every permission for any development granted under this Act shall remain in force for three years only from the date of such permission; provided that the planning and development authority may, on application made in this behalf before the expiry of the aforesaid period, extend such period, for such time as it may consider proper; but such extended period shall in no case exceed one year.

Provided further that such lapse shall not be a bar for any subsequent application for fresh permission under this Act.

Obligation to acquire land on refusal of or on grant of permission in certain cases.

48A.(1) Where :-

- (a) any land is designated by a plan as subject to compulsory acquisition; or

- (b) any land is allotted by a plan for the purpose of any functions of a Government or a local authority or a statutory body, or is land designated in such plan as a site proposed to be developed for the purposes of any functions of any such government, authority or body; or
- (c) any land is indicated in any plan as land on which a highway is proposed to be constructed or included; or
- (d) any land for the development of which permission is refused or is granted subject to conditions, and any owner of land referred to in clauses (a), (b), (c) or (d) claims:-

- (i) that the land has become incapable of reasonably beneficial use in its existing state; or
 - (ii) where planning permission is given subject to conditions that the land cannot be rendered capable of reasonably beneficial use by the carrying out of the permitted development in accordance with the conditions; or
- (e) the owner of the land because of its designation or allocation in any plan claims that he is unable to sell it except at a lower price than that at which he might have reasonably expected to sell if it were not so designated or allocated:

the owner or person affected may serve on the government within such time and in such manner, as may be prescribed by regulations, a notice (hereinafter referred to as "the purchase notice") requiring the appropriate authority to purchase his interest in the land in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

- (2) The purchase notice shall be accompanied by a copy of any application made by the applicant to the planning and development authority, and of any order or decision of that authority and of the government, if any, in respect of which the notice is given.
- (3) On receipt of a purchase notice, the government shall forthwith call from the planning and development authority such report or records or both, as may be necessary, which those authorities shall forward to the government as soon as possible but not later than thirty days from the date of their requisition.

- (4) On receiving such records or reports, if the government is satisfied that the conditions specified in sub-section(1) are fulfilled, and that the order or decision for permission was not duly made on the ground that the applicant did not comply with any of the provisions of this Act or rules or regulations, it may confirm the purchase notice, or direct that planning permission be granted without condition or subject to such conditions as will make the land capable of reasonably beneficial use. In any other case, it may refuse to confirm the purchase notice, but in that case, it shall give the applicant a reasonable opportunity of being heard.
- (5) If within a period of six months from the date on which a purchase notice is served, the government does not pass any final order thereon, the notice shall be deemed to have been confirmed at the expiration of that period.
- (6) If within one year from the date of confirmation of the notice, the appropriate authority fails to make an application to acquire the land in respect of which the purchase notice has been confirmed, the reservation, designation, allotment, indication or restriction on development of the land shall be deemed to have lapsed; and thereupon the land shall be deemed to be released from the reservation, designation or, as the case may be, allotment, indication or restriction and shall become available to the owner for the purpose of development otherwise permissible in the case of adjacent lands under the relevant plan.

Power of revocation or modification of
develop.

- 49A. (1) If it appears to the planning and development authority that it is expedient, having regard to development plan prepared or under preparation and to any other material consideration that any permission to develop land granted under this Act or any other law, should be revoked or modified, the planning and development authority after giving the person concerned an opportunity of being heard against such revocation or modification, may, by an order, revoke or modify the permission to such extent as appears to it to be necessary;

Provided that :-

- (a) where the permission relates to the carrying out of building or other operations, no such order :-
 - (i) shall affect such of the operations as have been previously carried out;
 - (ii) shall be passed after these operations have substantially progressed or have been completed;
 - (b) where permission relates to a change of use of land, no such order shall be passed at any time after the change has taken place.
- (2) When permission is revoked or modified by an order made under sub-section (1), if the owner claims from the planning and development authority within the time and in the manner prescribed, compensation for the expenditure incurred in carrying out the works after the grant of permission and in accordance with such permission, which has been rendered abortive by the revocation or modification, the planning and development authority shall, after giving the owner reasonable opportunity of being heard by an officer appointed by it in this behalf, and after considering the officer's report assess and offer such compensation to the owner as it thinks fit.
- (3) If the owner does not accept the compensation, and gives notice, within such time as may be prescribed, of his refusal to accept, the planning and development authority shall refer the matter for the adjudication of the Court and the decision of the Court shall be final and binding on the owner and the planning and development authority.

Penalty for unauthorised development or for use otherwise than in conformity with the development plan or development scheme or land
pooling scheme.

50A.

- (1) Any person who, whether at his own instance or at the instance of any other person or anybody commences, undertakes or carries out development, institutes, or changes use of any land or building :-
 - (a) in contravention of any development plan or development scheme or land pooling scheme;
 - (b) without obtaining a certificate regarding developmental charges under clause (a) of sub-section (1) of section 44A;

- (c) without permission as required under this Act;
- (d) in contravention of any condition subject to which such permission has been granted;
- (e) after the permission for development has been revoked under section 49A; or
- (f) in contravention of the permission which has been modified under section 49A;

shall, on conviction be punishable with simple imprisonment for a term which may extend to three years, or with a fine which may extend to ten thousand rupees or with both and in the case of a continuing offence with a further fine which may extend to five hundred rupees for every day during which the offence continues after conviction for the first commission of the offence.

- (2) Any person who continues to use or allows the use of any land or building in contravention of the provisions of the development plan or development scheme or land pooling scheme without having been allowed under section 43A or clause (a) of sub-section (1) of section 82A, or where the continuance of such use has been allowed under that section, continues such use after the period for which the use has been allowed or without complying with the terms and conditions under which the continuance of such use is allowed, shall be punishable with a further fine which may extend to five hundred rupees for every day during which such offence continues after conviction for the first commission of the offence.

Power to require removal of unauthorised development.

- 51A. (1) Where any development of land has been or is being carried out as described in section 68, the planning and development authority, shall serve on the owner a notice requiring him, within such period, not exceeding one month, as may be specified therein, after the service of the notice, to take such steps as may be specified in the notice,

- (a) in cases specified in clauses (a), (c) or (e) of sub-section (1) of section 68 to restore the land to its condition before the said development took place;

- (b) in cases specified in clause (d) or (f) of sub-section (1) of section 50A to secure compliance with the conditions or with the permission as modified;
 - (c) in cases specified in clause (b) of sub-section (1) of section 50A to pay the developmental charges and such penalty, if any, as may be prescribed;
- (2) In particular, any such notice may, for the purposes of sub-section (1) require:-
- (a) the demolition or alteration of any building or works;
 - (b) the carrying out on land, of any building or other operations; or
 - (c) the discontinuance of any use of land;

Provided that in case the notice required the discontinuance of any use of land, the planning and development authority shall serve a notice on the occupier also.

- (3) Any person aggrieved by such notice may, within the period specified in the notice and in the manner prescribed:-
- (a) apply for permission under section 45A this Act for the retention on the land or any buildings or works or for the continuance of any use of the land, to which the notice relates; or
 - (b) appeal to such authority in such manner as may be prescribed.
- (4) (a) The notice shall be of no effect pending the final determination or withdrawal of the application or the appeal.
- (b) (i) The provisions of the foregoing sections 45A, 46A and 47A shall apply to such application with such modifications as may be necessary.
 - (ii) If such permission as aforesaid is granted on that application, the notice shall not take effect, or if such permission is granted for the retention only of some buildings or works or for the continuance of use of only a part of the land, the notice shall not take effect regarding such buildings or works or such part of the land, but shall have full effect regarding other buildings or works or other parts of the land.

- (5) The appellate authority may dismiss the appeal or accept the appeal by quashing or varying the notice as it may consider fit.
- (6) If within the period specified in the notice or within such period after the disposal or withdrawal of the application for permission or the appeal under sub-section (3) the notice or so much of it as continues to have effect, or the notice with variation made in appeal, is not complied with, the planning and development authority may:-
 - (a) prosecute the owner for not complying with the notice and in case where the notice required the discontinuance of any use of land, any other person also who uses the land or causes or permits the land to be used in contravention of the notice; and
 - (b)(i) In the case of a notice requiring the demolition or alteration of any building or works or carrying out of any building or other operations, itself cause the restoration of the land to its condition before the development took place and secure the compliance with the conditions of the permission or with the permission as modified, by taking such steps as the planning and development authority may consider necessary including demolition or alteration of any building or works or carrying out of any building or other operations;
 - (ii) the planning and development authority may recover the cost of any expenses incurred by it in this regard from the owner as arrears of land revenue.

- (7) Any person prosecuted under clause (a) of sub-section (6) shall be punishable with simple imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months or with a fine which may extend to ten thousand rupees, or with both and in the case of a continuing offence, with a further fine which may extend to five hundred rupees for every day during which such offence continues after conviction for the first commission of the offence.

Power to stop
development.

- 52A. (1) Where any development of land as described in section 50A is being carried out but has not been completed, the planning and development authority may serve on the owner and the person carrying out the development, a notice requiring the development of land to be discontinued from the time of the service of such notice.

- (2) Where such notice has been served, the provisions of clause (b) of sub-section (4) and sub-section (5) of section 51A shall apply with such modifications as may be necessary;

Provided that provisions of clause (a) of sub-section (4) of section 51A shall not apply, in spite of the filing of an application for permission for development or an appeal as provided in clause (b) of sub-section (3) of section 51A, and the notice shall continue to have full effect.

- (3) Any person, who continues to carry out the development of land, whether for himself or on behalf of the owner or any other person, after such notice has been served, shall be punishable with simple imprisonment for a term which may extend to three years, or with a fine which may extend to ten thousand rupees, or with both and when the non-compliance is a continuing one, with a further fine which may extend to five hundred rupees for every day after the date of the service of the notice during which non-compliance has continued or continues.

- (4) If such notice is not complied with forthwith, the planning and development authority or such officer of the planning and development authority who may be authorised in this behalf, may require any police officer to remove such person and all assistants and workmen from the land at any time after the service of such notice and such police officer shall comply with the requisition accordingly.

- (5) After the requisition under sub-section (4) has been complied with, the planning and development authority or such officer of the planning and development authority who may be authorised in this behalf, may, if he thinks fit, depute, by a written order, a police officer or any officer or employee of the planning and development authority to watch the land in order to ensure that the development is not continued. The planning and development authority shall be empowered to seal the unauthorised development.
- (6) Where a police officer or an employee of the planning and development authority has been deputed under sub-section (5) to watch the land, the cost of such deputation shall be paid by the person at whose instance such development is being continued or to whom notice under sub-section (1) was given and shall be recoverable from such person as arrears of land revenue.

Removal or discontinuance of unauthorised temporary development summarily.

- 53A. (1) Notwithstanding anything herein before contained in this Chapter, where any person has carried out any development of a temporary nature unauthorisedly as indicated in sub-section (1) of section 50A, the planning and development authority may by an order in writing direct that person to remove any structure or work erected, or discontinue the use of land made, unauthorisedly as aforesaid, within fifteen days of the receipt of the order; and if thereafter, the person does not comply with the order within the said period, the planning and development authority may request the District Magistrate or the Commissioner of Police, or the Superintendent of Police, as the case may be, or authorise any of its officers or servants, to have such work summarily removed or such use summarily discontinued without any notice as directed in the order; and any development unauthorisedly made again, shall be similarly removed or discontinued summarily without making any order as aforesaid.
- (2) The decision of the planning and development authority on the question of what is development of a temporary nature shall be final.

Power to require removal of authorised development or use of land.

- (3) The planning and development authority may recover the cost of any expenses incurred by it in this regard from the owner as arrears of land revenue.

54A. (1) If it appears to the planning and development authority that it is expedient in the interest of the proper planning of its areas (including the interests of amenities), having regard to the perspective plan of the local planning area or its development plan prepared, or under preparation, or to be prepared, and to any other material consideration;

- (a) that any use of land should be discontinued; or
- (b) that any conditions should be imposed on the continuance thereof; or
- (c) that any building or works should be altered or removed;

The planning and development authority may, by notice served on the owner,

- (i) require the discontinuance of that use; or
- (ii) impose such conditions, as may be specified in the notice, on the continuance thereof; or
- (iii) require such steps, as may be specified in the notice to be taken for the alteration or removal of any buildings or works, as the case may be, within such period, being not less than one month, as may be specified therein, after the service of the notice.

(2) Any person aggrieved by such notice, may within the said period and in the manner prescribed, appeal to the authority as may be prescribed.

(3) If an appeal is filed under sub-section (2), the provisions of clause (a) of sub-section (3) and sub-section (4) of section 51A shall apply, with such modifications as may be necessary.

- (4) If any person:-
 - (a) has suffered damage in consequence of the compliance with the notice, by the depreciation of any interest in the land to which he is entitled or by being disturbed in his enjoyment of the land, or
 - (b) has carried out any works in compliance with the notice, and claims from the planning and development authority within the time and in the manner prescribed, compensation in respect of that damage, or of any expenses reasonably incurred by him for complying with the notice, the provisions of sub-sections (2) and (3) of section 67 shall apply with such modifications as may be necessary.
- (5) If any person interested in the land in respect of which a notice is issued under this section, claims that by reason of the compliance with the notice, the land will become incapable of reasonably beneficial use, he may within the period specified in the notice or within such period after the disposal of the appeal, if any, filed under sub-section (2) and in the manner prescribed, serve on the government, an acquisition notice requiring his interest in the land to be acquired.
- (6) When a notice is served under sub-section (5), the provisions of sub-section (2) to (5) of section 48A shall apply with such modifications as may be necessary.

Interim provision
of plan.

55A. Where the planning and development authority in exercise of its functions and powers with respect to any area under it, is required to have regard to the provisions of a plan before such plan has become operative, the planning and development authority shall have regard to the provisions which in its opinion will be required to be included for securing the proper planning of the concerned area.

Planning and development authority
to include special area planning and development authority.

56A. For the purposes of this Chapter, the planning and development authority shall also include special area planning and development authority.

Power of metropolitan planning committee or district planning committee to exercise control of development and use of land

- 57A. (1) The metropolitan planning committee and district planning committee shall exercise control over development and use of land within the areas as specified in sub-section (2).
- (2) Any person or body (excluding a department of central or state government or a local authority) intending to undertake any development or carry out change in the use of land or building in an area situated :-
- (a) outside the jurisdiction of the planning and development authority but within the area covered by perspective plan of the local planning area;
 - (b) outside the limits specified under clause (a) but within:
 - (i) five hundred metres on either side of the right of way of a national highway or an expressway including their bye-passes;
 - (ii) three hundred metres on either side of the right of way of a state highway including its bye-pass;
 - (iii) two hundred metres on either side of a district road; and
 - (iv) one hundred metres on either side of all other categories of roads entering into a city having a population of one lakh or more;
 - (v) within the area or areas as may be notified in Official Gazette and at least one local newspaper by the government from time to time.

shall make an application in writing to the metropolitan planning member or the district planning member as the case may be, for permission in such form and containing such particulars and accompanied by such documents, plans and fee as may be prescribed by the regulations.

- (3) On receipt of application under sub-section (1) having been duly made and on payment of the developmental charges as may be assessed under section 111A, the metropolitan planning member or the district planning member, as the case may be, may pass an order:-
- (i) granting permission unconditionally; or
 - (ii) granting permission subject to such conditions as he may think fit, or
 - (iii) refusing permission.

Provided that where the application relates to the area as specified under clause (a) of sub-section (2) the metropolitan planning member or the district planning member, as the case may be, shall consult the municipal planner before granting permission.

- (4) The provisions relating to control of development and use of land contained in this Chapter with regard to the proposed developments by any person or body excluding the departments of Central or State Government or local authority shall mutatis mutandis apply in respect of exercise of power by the metropolitan planning member or the district planning member, as the case may be, in this regard.
- (5) The provisions contained in this chapter relating to proposed developments by the departments of the central or state Government or the local authority as also other provisions regarding exemption of operational constructions of such departments or the local authority shall mutatis mutandis, apply.

Over-riding effect of this Act.

58A. Notwithstanding anything contained in the Municipal Act, or any other law relating to municipalities and municipal corporations contrary to the provisions contained in this Act, the provisions of this Act shall have an over-riding effect over all such laws.

52. Delete title of Chapter V and reword it as 'DEVELOPMENT SCHEMES'

53. Delete sections 59 to 112 and add the sections as under:

CHAPTER - V

DEVELOPMENT SCHEMES

Power of the metropolitan planning committee, the district planning committee and the planning and development authority to take up development schemes.

- 59A. (1) Subject to the provisions of this Act and rules and regulations made thereunder, a planning and development authority may undertake development in any area under its jurisdiction by framing and executing development schemes.
- (2) A metropolitan planning committee or a district planning committee may also get development schemes executed within the area under their respective jurisdiction. It shall, however not execute any development scheme itself, but function as a facilitator.

Preparation of development schemes.

- 60A. (1) A development scheme may be prepared for making provision for all or any of the following matters namely:
- (a) acquisition of land by purchase, lease or otherwise and to erect thereon such buildings or to carry out such operations as may be necessary for the purposes of carrying on its functions;

- (3) The planning and development authority may, on such terms and conditions as may be agreed upon, undertake formulation and execution of any developmental project any where on behalf of a local authority, body corporate, co-operative society, or a department of the State or the Central Government.

Provided that permission for such development has been obtained under the provisions of chapter VII of this Act by the concerned local authority, body corporate or co-operative society, as the case may be, the department of the State or Central Government.

- (4) No development scheme shall be framed by the planning and development authority and no project shall be formulated by any other person or body including departments of central and state governments unless they are in conformity with the provisions of a plan approved under this Act.

Power of the metropolitan planning committee, the district planning committee and the planning and development authority to engage consultants.

- 61A. The metropolitan planning committee, the district planning committee and the planning and development authority may for framing and executing a development scheme, engage any consultant on such terms and conditions as may be agreed upon between it and the consultant.

Publication of the development scheme and its approval.

- 62A. (1) As soon as may be, after a development scheme has been formulated, the concerned metropolitan planning committee, the district planning committee or the the planning and development authority shall publish in at least one local newspaper a notice of the preparation of the development scheme and the place or the places where copies of the same may be inspected, inviting objections and suggestion in writing from the public to be filed within thirty days from the date of publication of such notice in the newspaper. The notice shall indicate the date, time and place where a public meeting shall be arranged to present the highlights of the development scheme. The notice shall also state the name of the place or places where a copy of the development scheme shall be available for inspection by the public during the office hours.

Provided that no such notice under this sub-section shall be required where the development scheme is within the framework of the approved development plan of a local planning area.

- (2) After the expiry of the period allowed under sub-section (1) for filing objections and suggestions, the Metropolitan Planning Member or the District Planning Member or the Municipal Planner, as the case may be, shall consider all the objections and suggestions received and shall after allowing reasonable opportunity of being heard, to any person who has made a request of being so heard, make such modifications in the development scheme as he considers proper within a period of sixty days of the date of expiry of the notice period allowed under sub-section (1), and shall submit the said development scheme with or without modifications for approval of the standing planning committee of planning and development authority or the metropolitan planning committee or the district planning committee, as the case may be.
- (3) The standing planning committee, the metropolitan planning committee or the district planning committee as the case may be, within thirty days of the submission of the development scheme to it, either accord its approval to the scheme with or without modifications or refuse such approval.
- (4) Immediately after a development scheme has been approved by the standing planning committee or the Metropolitan planning committee, or the district planning committee, as the case may be, under sub-section (3) the Municipal Planner or the Metropolitan Planning Member or the District Planning Member as the case may be shall notify in Official Gazette and publish a notice, in atleast one local newspaper, of the approval of the development scheme mentioning the place or places and the time at which the scheme shall be open to inspection by the public.
- (5) If a development scheme is not required to be published under the provision of sub-section (1), the Municipal Planner shall immediately after preparation of such scheme place the same before the Standing Planning Committee for approval.

Power of planning
and development
authority to setup
functional agencies.

- 63A. (1) A planning and development authority with the prior approval of the government, may set up functional agencies for performance of such specific functions, not inconsistent with the objects of this Act, in such cases where it considers appropriate that it would be in public interest and would effect economy and efficiency in the performance of the functions assigned to it.

- (2) The composition, management and the procedures of the aforesaid agencies to be set up under sub-section (1) shall be such as may be prescribed.

Auction of Floor Area Ratio.

64A. (1) If the planning and development authority is satisfied that in a particular locality, augmentation of infrastructure, particularly relating to transportation, has occurred to such an extent that there is a scope for permitting additional built-up space by way of additional floor area ratio (FAR) or floor space index (FSI) over and above the permissible FAR or FSI in the area, it may prepare a scheme identifying the specific area where such additional builtup space can be permitted by way of auction and specifying the applicable development control norms.

- (2) The scheme prepared under sub-section (1) shall quantify the total additional built-up space to be permitted and the maximum spot FAR or FSI to be allowed by auction. Thereupon the planning and development authority, shall auction the aforesaid additional built-up space in the manner prescribed.

Provided that no auction shall take place unless the augmentation of infrastructure and services mentioned in sub-section (1) has become fully operational.

54. Add new Chapter V A titled "LAND POOLING SCHEMES" containing the sections as under:

CHAPTER V A

LAND POOLING SCHEMES

Power of planning and development authority to prepare Land Pooling Schemes.

- 65A. Subject to the provisions of this Act or any other law for the time being in force, the planning and development authority shall, after the plan has come into operation, for the purpose of implementing the proposals contained in the plan, prepare one or more Land Pooling Schemes for any part of the area within its jurisdiction.

Contents of Land pooling scheme.

- 66A. The land pooling scheme shall contain the following particulars or details, so far as may be necessary, that is to say :-

- (a) the area, ownership and tenure of all original plots covered by the land pooling scheme;
- (b) reservation, acquisition or allotment of land with general indication of the uses as contained in the plan to which such land would be put and the terms and conditions, subject to which, such land is to be put to such uses;
- (c) the laying out or relaying out of the land either vacant or already built upon;
- (d) the filling up or reclamation of low lying swamp or unhealthy areas or levelling up of land;
- (e) the extent to which it is proposed to alter the boundaries of the original plots in accordance with the proposed land pooling scheme as the reconstituted final plots;
- (f) an estimate of the total cost of the land pooling scheme and the net cost to be borne by the planning and development authority;
- (g) proposals to allocate transferable development right to any final plot owner in lieu of loss of area from the original plot with the consent of the owner; and

- (h) the imposition of conditions and restrictions in regard to the open space to be maintained about buildings, the percentage of building area for a plot, the number, height and character of buildings allowed in specified areas, the purposes for which buildings or specified areas may or may not be appropriated, the sub-division of plots, the discontinuance of objectionable uses of land in any area in reasonable periods, parking space and loading and unloading space for any building and the size of projections and advertisement signs;
- (i) any other particulars as may be considered necessary.

Reconstitution of original plots into final plots.

67A. (1) In a land pooling scheme, reconstituting the plots, the size and shape of every reconstituted plot shall be determined, so far as may be, to render it suitable for building purposes, and where a plot is already built upon to ensure that the buildings, as far as possible, comply with the provisions of the land pooling scheme as regards open spaces.

(2) For the purpose of sub-section (1), the land pooling scheme may contain proposals:-

- (a) to form a final plot by reconstitution of an original plot by alteration of the boundaries of the original plot, if necessary;
- (b) to form a reconstituted final plot from an original plot by the transfer wholly or partly of the adjoining lands;
- (c) to allot a reconstituted final plot to any owner dispossessed of land in furtherance of the objectives of the land pooling scheme;
- (d) to transfer the ownership of an original plot from one person to another; and
- (e) to provide, with consent of the owners, that two or more original plots each of which is held in ownership severally or in joint ownership shall hereafter, with or without alteration of boundaries, be held in ownership in common as a reconstituted plot;

(3) The land pooling scheme shall be subject to the provisions of the Urban Land (Ceiling and Regulation) Act, 1976 if applicable to the area.

Declaration of intention to prepare
land pooling scheme.

- 68A. (1) The planning and development authority may by a Resolution declare its intention to make land pooling scheme in respect of any part of the area within its jurisdiction for which a perspective plan or development plan has been approved.
- (2) The planning and development authority shall publish the declaration in the form of a notice in atleast one local newspaper.
- (3) The notice published under sub-section (2) shall contain :-
- (a) the Resolution of the planning and development authority declaring its intention to prepare a landpooling scheme;
 - (b) the name of the place or places where a copy of the showing the boundary of the area to be included in the land pooling scheme together with the proposals of the approved perspective plan or development plan, as the case may be, for that area shall be open to the inspection of the public at all reasonable hours; and
 - (c) an invitation to furnish information in the form prescribed (to be appended with the notice) within thirty days from the date of publication of such notice in respect of any title or interest which any person may have, in the land or building covered by the intended land pooling scheme.
- (4) The planning and development authority shall forward a copy of the Resolution together with the notice and the drawing as indicated in sub-section (3) to the government and the Director of Town Planning.
- (5) The publication of the declaration as provided under sub-section (2) shall, notwithstanding any thing containing in the Land Acquisition Act, 1894, be deemed to be a declaration duly made under section 4 of the said Act.

- (h) estimate in reference to claims made before him, after the notice given by him in the prescribed manner, the compensation to be paid to the owner of any property or right injuriously affected by the making of a land pooling scheme in accordance with the provisions contained in section 91A;
- (i) determine the period in which the works provided in the land pooling scheme shall be completed by the planning and development authority;

Provided that the Project Planner may make variations in the land pooling scheme subject to the condition that any variation estimated by him to involve an increase of ten per cent in the total cost of the land pooling scheme or rupees one lakh whichever is lower, shall require the sanction of the planning and development authority.

- (4) Immediately but not later than one month, after the draft final land pooling scheme has been prepared, the Project Planner shall convene the second and final meeting of the owners of original plots to whom final plots are to be allotted through a public notice and explain the draft final land pooling scheme. A brief record of the aforesaid meeting shall be maintained.
- (5) Immediately but not later than one month, after the meeting under sub-section (4) the Project Planner shall decide all matters referred to in sub-section (3) after taking into account the brief record of the aforesaid meeting and submit the final draft land pooling scheme to the planning and development authority.
- (6) On receipt of the final draft land pooling scheme under sub-section (5) the planning and development authority may make such modifications in such scheme as it may consider necessary with the assistance of the Project Planner.

Publication of the draft land pooling scheme. 71A.

The planning and development authority shall, within one month of the receipt of the final draft land pooling scheme publish a public notice of the preparation of the final draft land pooling scheme in atleast one local newspaper inviting objections and suggestions from the public within thirty days of the date of publication of the aforesaid notice in the newspaper. The notice shall state the name of the place or places where a copy thereof shall be available for inspection by the public and that copies thereof or extracts therefrom certified to be correct shall be available for sale to the public at a reasonable price.

Consideration of objections and submission of final land pooling scheme to government for approval. 72A. (1)

After the expiry of the period mentioned in section 71A the planning and development authority shall examine the final draft land pooling scheme in the light of the objections that may have been received and after giving reasonable opportunity of being heard to all such persons who have filed objections and who have made request for being so heard, may make such amendments as it considers proper and prepare the final land pooling scheme.

- (2) The final land pooling scheme prepared under sub-section (1) shall be forwarded to the government for approval within three months from the date of expiry of notice under section 71A.
- Approval of government and date of commencement of the land pooling scheme. 73A. (1) The government may, in consultation with the government and the Director of Town Planning within a period of sixty days from the date of receipt of land pooling scheme, approve the land pooling scheme with or without modifications by a notification in the Official Gazette and in at least one local newspaper and the land pooling scheme shall come into operation from the date of the aforesaid notification.
- Appeal. 74A. (1) From every decision contained in the land pooling scheme in matters arising out of clauses (a), (b), (c), (g) and (h) of sub-section (3) of section 70A, an appeal shall lie within one month of the notification of approval of the land pooling scheme to the authority to be prescribed.
- (a) Any person aggrieved by the decision in appeal of the prescribed authority in matters referred to in sub-section (i) above, may appeal within sixty days from the date of decision of the prescribed authority in appeal, to the District Judge within the local limits of whose jurisdiction the area included in the land pooling scheme is situated.
- (b) The District Judge may transfer the appeal filed before him to the Additional District Judge for disposal.
- (c) The District Judge or the Additional District Judge, as the case may be, after making such enquiry as he may think fit, may either direct the planning and development authority to reconsider the decision or accept, modify, vary or reject the decision contained in the approved land pooling scheme and shall decide all matters arising out of clauses referred to in sub-section(1).
- (d) The decision of the District Judge or the Additional District Judge, as the case may be, shall be final and conclusive and binding on all persons. A copy of the decision in appeal shall be sent to government and the planning and development authority.

- (2) All other decisions pertaining to clauses (d) to (f) (both inclusive) and clause (i) of sub-section (3) of section 70A contained in the land pooling scheme shall forthwith be communicated to the party concerned and any party aggrieved by such decision may, within thirty days from the date of communication of the decision, appeal to the Tribunal for Land Pooling Scheme constituted under section 76A, in the manner and accompanied by such fee as may be prescribed.
- (3) Notwithstanding any thing contained in section 74A, the filing of an appeal in matters referred to in sub-section (1) of section 70A to the prescribed authority or the Tribunal of Appeal for Land Pooling Scheme, as the case may be, shall not operate as a bar to the execution of the land pooling scheme.
- (4) The provisions of sections 5, 12 and 14 of the Indian Limitation Act, 1963 shall apply to appeals submitted under this section.

Effect of Land Pooling Scheme.

- 75A. (1) On and after the day on which a land pooling scheme comes into force:
- (a) all lands required by the planning and development authority shall, unless it is otherwise determined in such scheme, vest absolutely in the planning and development authority free from all encumbrances;
 - (b) all rights in the original plots which have been reconstituted as final plots shall stand determined, and the final plots shall become subject to the rights settled by the planning and development authority and the land records shall be changed accordingly by the concerned authority;
 - (c) the planning and development authority shall hand over possession of the final plots to the owners to whom they are allotted in the land pooling scheme.

Constitution of Tribunal for Land Pooling Scheme.

- 76A. (1) The Tribunal for Land Pooling Scheme shall be a permanent Tribunal to be appointed by the government consisting of a Chairperson and two assessors for all land pooling schemes within the district.

- (2) The Chairperson of the Tribunal for Land Pooling Scheme shall be the District Judge. The Regional or Divisional head of the Public Works Department and a Town Planner not below the rank of Associate Town Planner shall be the two assessors. The assessors shall be appointed by the government.
- (3) The Project Planner shall be present at the proceedings before the Tribunal for Land Pooling Scheme. He shall not be required to give evidence but the Chairperson may require him to assist the Tribunal in an advisory capacity.
- (4) The Government may, if it thinks fit, remove for incompetence or misconduct or any other good and sufficient reason any assessor appointed under sub-section (2).

Place where
Tribunal for Land
Pooling Scheme
may sit.

77A.

The Tribunal for land pooling scheme may sit either at the headquarters of the Chairperson or at any other place within the local limits of his jurisdiction which he may deem convenient for consideration and decision of any matter before such Tribunal for Land Pooling Scheme.

Decision on questions of law
and other questions.

78A.

All questions of law and procedure shall be decided by the Chairperson. All other questions shall be decided by the Chairperson and the two assessors or by a majority.

Tribunal for Land
Pooling Scheme not to be court.

79A.

Nothing contained in this Act shall be deemed to constitute the Tribunal for Land Pooling Scheme to be Court.

Remuneration of Assessors and payment of incidental expenses of Tribunal for Land Pooling Scheme.

80A. (1)

In exceptional cases where the Land Pooling Scheme is a large one or the work involved is complicated, the government may authorise the Chairperson and the assessors even to receive such special salary or remuneration, as the government may, by order, decide from time to time.

(2)

All expenses under sub-section (1) and all expenses incidental to the working of the Tribunal for Land Pooling Scheme shall be defrayed out of the funds of the planning and development authority and shall be added to the cost of the land pooling scheme.

Disputed ownership.

81A. (1)

Where there is a disputed claim as to the ownership of any piece of land included in an area in respect of which declaration of intention to prepare a land pooling scheme has been made under sub-section (1) of section 68A and any entry in the records of rights or mutation register relevant to such disputed claim is inaccurate or inconclusive, an enquiry may be held by the Collector on a submission being made by the planning and development authority at any time for the purpose of deciding who shall be deemed to be the owner for the purpose of this Act.

(2) Such decision shall not be subject to appeal but it shall not operate as a bar to a regular suit.

(3) Such decision shall, in the event of the civil court passing a decree which is inconsistent therewith, be corrected, modified or rescinded in accordance with such decree as may be practicable after such decree has been brought to the notice of the planning and development authority either by the Civil Court or by any person affected by such decree.

(4) Where such a decree of the court is passed after the scheme has been notified under section 73A such scheme shall be deemed to have been suitably varied by reason of such decree.

Restrictions on use and development of land after declaration of intention to prepare a land pooling scheme.

82A. (1)

On or after the date on which the declaration of the intention to prepare land pooling scheme is published under sub-section (2) of section 68A.

(a) no person shall within the area included in the declaration erect or proceed with any building work remove, pull down, alter, make additions to or make any substantial repair to any building, part of a building, a compound wall or any drainage work or remove any earth, stone or material, or sub-divide any land or change the use of any land or building unless such person has applied for and obtained necessary permission from the planning and development authority in the form prescribed;

(b) The planning and development authority on receipt of such application shall at once furnish the applicant with a written acknowledgement of it receipt and may, after an enquiry, either grant or refuse such permission or grant it subject to such conditions as the planning and development authority may think fit to impose. If the planning and development authority communicates no decision to the applicant within thirty days from the date of such acknowledgement, the applicant shall be deemed to have been granted such permission;

- (c) If any person contravenes the provisions contained in clause (a) or clause (b), the planning and development authority may direct such person by a notice in writing to stop any work in progress, and after making inquiry in the prescribed manner, remove, pull down, or alter any building or other work or restore the land in respect of which such contravention is made to its original condition;
 - (d) Any expenses incurred by the planning and development authority under clause (c) shall be a sum due to such authority under this Act from the person in default or the owner of the plot.
- (2) No person shall be entitled to compensation in respect of any damage, loss or injury resulting from any action taken by the planning and development authority under sub-section (1) except in respect of a building or work begun or a contract entered into before the date on which the planning and development authority has published the declaration to prepare the land pooling scheme under sub-section (2) of section 68A and only in so far as such building or work has proceeded at the time of the publication of the aforesaid declaration.

Provided that such claim to compensation in the excepted cases shall be subject to the conditions of any agreement entered into between such person and the planning and development authority.

- (3) Where under section 66A:
 - (a) the purpose to which any plot of land may not be used has been specified, such plot of land shall, within such period of not less than one year, as may be stipulated in the scheme, cease to be used for such purpose and shall be used only for the purpose specified in the land pooling scheme;

- (b) the purpose to which any existing building may not be used has been specified, such building shall, within such period of not less than three years as may be specified in the scheme, cease to be used for the purpose other than the purposes specified in the land pooling scheme;
- (c) the purpose to which any plot of land with existing buildings may not be used has been specified in the land pooling scheme and the existence of such buildings is inconsistent with the provisions of the land pooling scheme, such buildings shall, within a period of not less than ten years or a period as may be stipulated in the land pooling scheme cease to exist;

Provided that such a period shall not be less than the reasonable life of the building;

- (4) Any person aggrieved by the decision of the planning and development authority under this section may, within thirty days from the date of the decision, appeal to the authority as may be prescribed and the order of the said authority in appeal shall be final.
- (5) The provision of Chapter IV shall, mutatis mutandis apply in relation to the unauthorised development or use of land included in a land pooling scheme.
- (6) The restrictions imposed by this section shall cease to operate in the event of the land pooling scheme being withdrawn by the planning and development authority on its own or on the direction of the government under section 83A.

Withdrawal of land pooling scheme by the planning and development authority.

- 83A. (1) If at any time before the land pooling scheme is published under section 71A, a representation is made to the planning and development authority by a majority of the owners in the area that the land pooling scheme should be withdrawn, the planning and development authority shall invite from all persons interested in the land pooling scheme, objections to such representation.

- (2) On receipt of the objection, and after making such inquiry as it may think fit, the planning and development authority by a notification in the Official Gazette, withdraw the land pooling scheme and upon such withdrawal, no further proceedings shall be taken in regard to such scheme.
- (3) Simultaneously with such withdrawal, the planning and development authority shall submit to the government the copy of the notice withdrawing the land pooling scheme and a report of its enquiry made in this behalf.
- (4) At any time prior to the publication of the land pooling scheme under section 71A, the government if it is satisfied that it is in the public interest, may direct the planning and development authority to withdraw a land pooling scheme. Thereupon the planning and development authority shall withdraw the land pooling scheme by a notification published in the Official Gazette. Upon such withdrawal no further proceedings shall be taken in regard to such land pooling scheme.

Power of planning
and development
authority to evict summarily

- 84A. (1) On and after the day on which a land pooling scheme comes into force, any person continuing to occupy any land which he is not entitled to occupy under the land pooling scheme may, in accordance with the prescribed procedure, be summarily evicted by the planning and development authority or any of its officers authorised in that behalf.

- (2) If the planning and development authority is opposed or impeded in evicting such person or taking possession of the land from such person, the District Magistrate shall, at the request of the planning and development authority enforce the eviction of such person or secure delivery of possession of the land to the planning and development authority.

Power to enforce
land pooling scheme.

- 85A. (1) On and after the date on which the approval of a land pooling scheme has been notified, under section 73A the planning and development authority after giving the prescribed notice and in accordance with the provisions of the land pooling scheme:

- (a) remove, pull down, or alter any building or other work in the area included in the land pooling scheme which is such as it contravenes the land pooling scheme or in the erection of which or carrying out of which, any provision of the land pooling scheme has not been complied with;

- (b) execute any work which it is the duty of any person to execute under the land pooling scheme, in such case where it appears to the planning and development authority that delay in the execution of the work would prejudice the efficient operation of the land pooling scheme.

- (2) Any expenses incurred by the planning and development authority under this section may be recovered from the person in default or from the owner of the original plot in the manner provided for the recovery of sums due to the planning and development authority under the provisions of this Act.

- (3) If any action taken by the planning and development authority is questioned, the matter shall be referred to the government or any officer authorised by the government in this behalf; and the decision of the government or of the said officer, as the case may be, shall be final and conclusive and binding on all persons.

Power to make minor variations in
land pooling scheme
on ground of error, irregularity or informality.

- 86A. (1) If after the land pooling scheme has come into force, the planning and development authority considers that the land pooling scheme is defective on account of an error, irregularity or informality or that the land pooling scheme needs variation or modification of a minor nature, the planning and development authority shall, by a notice in the local newspaper publish a draft of such variation in the prescribed manner.
- (2) The draft variation published under sub-section (1) shall state every amendment proposed to be made in the land pooling scheme.
- (3) The draft variation shall be open to the inspection of the public at the office of the planning and development authority during office hours.
- (4) Not later than one month of the date of the publication of the draft variation, any person affected thereby may communicate in writing his objection to the planning and development authority.

- (5) After receiveing the objections under sub-section(4) the planning and development authority shall after making such enquiry as it may think fit, notify the variation with or without modification by notification in the Official Gazette and in a local newspaper.
- (6) From the date of the notification of the variation in the Official Gazette, with or without modifications, such variation shall take effect as if it were incorporated in the land pooling scheme.

Power to vary land pooling scheme.

87A.

A land pooling scheme may at any time be varied by a subsequent land pooling scheme prepared and published in accordance with this Act:

Provided that, when a land pooling scheme is so varied, the provisions of this Act shall, so far as may be applicable, apply to such variation and making of subsequent land pooling scheme; and the date of publication of the varied scheme shall, for the purposes of section 82A, 89A, and 90A be deemed to be the date of publication of scheme referred to in these sections.

Apportionment of cost of land pooling scheme withdrawn.

88A.

In the event of a land pooling scheme being withdrawn, the cost of the land pooling scheme shall be borne by the planning and development authority or be paid to the planning and development authority, as the case may be, by the owners concerned, in such proportion as the government may in each case determine.

Cost of land pooling scheme.

89A. (1)

The cost of a land poolingscheme shall include:-

- (a) all sums payable by the planning and development authority under the provisions of this Act which are not specifically excluded from the cost of the scheme;
- (b) all sums spent or estimated to be spent by the planning and development authority :
 - (i) in the making of the land pooling scheme;
 - (ii) in the execution of the land pooling scheme; and

- (iii) in the execution of such part of the peripheral and bulk services as may be considered reasonable.
 - (c) three fourth of all sums payable as compensation for land reserved or allotted for any public purpose;
 - (d) all legal expenses incurred by the planning and development authority in the making and in the execution of the land pooling scheme;
 - (e) the amount by which the total of the values of the original plots exceeds the total of the values of the plots included in the final land pooling scheme, each of such plots being estimated at its market value on the date of publication of declaration of intention under section 86 with all the buildings and works thereon on that date and without reference to improvements contemplated in the scheme other than improvements due to the alteration of its boundaries.
- (2) The estimated cost of works referred to in sub-clauses(ii) and (iii) of clause (b) of sub section (1) shall be as per the schedule of rates applicable on the date the land pooling scheme is published by a public notice under section 71A and shall include such escalation as may be considered reasonable.
- Contribution towards cost of land pooling scheme. 90A. (1) The cost of the land pooling scheme shall be met wholly or in part by a contribution to be levied by the planning and development authority on each final plot included in the land pooling scheme calculated by the Project Planner in proportion to the ratio of the area of each final plot to the sum total of the area of final plots excluding areas of final plots allotted to the Planning and development authority on prorata basis.
- (2) The owner of each final plot included in a land pooling scheme shall be primarily liable for the payment of the contribution leviable in respect of such plot.
- Compensation in respect of property or right injuriously affected by land pooling schme. 91A. The owner of any property or right whose interest is injuriously affected by the making of a land pooling scheme shall, if he makes a claim before the planning and development authority within thirty days of the receipt of the notice from the planning and development authority be entitled to obtain compensation in respect thereof from the planning and development authority or from any person benefited or partly from the planning and development authority and partly from such person as the planning and development authority may in each case determine.

Exclusion or limitation of compensation in certain cases.

- .92A. (1) No compensation shall be payable in respect of any property or private right of any sort which is alleged to be injuriously affected by reason of any provisions contained in the land pooling scheme, if under any other law for the time being in force applicable to the areas for which such scheme is made, no compensation is payable for such injurious affection
- (2) The property or a private right of any sort shall not be deemed to be injuriously affected by reason of any provision inserted in a land pooling scheme which with a view to securing the amenity of the area included in such scheme or any part thereof, imposes any conditions and restrictions in regard to any of the matters specified in clause (h) of section 66A.

Provision for cases in which the owner is not provided with a plot
in the final land
pooling scheme.

- 93A. (1) If the owner of an original plot is not provided with a final plot in the land pooling scheme the net amount of his loss shall be payable to him by the planning & development authority.
- (2) Where the final land pooling scheme provides for award of Transferable Development Right to any owner of the final plot, the planning and development authority shall furnish to such owners a certificate of Transfer of Development Right in such form and in such manner as may be prescribed.

Payment of net
amount due to planning
and development authority.

- 94A. (1) The net amount payable under the provisions of this Act by the allottee of a final plot included in a land pooling scheme shall be payable to the planning and development authority within a period of thirty days from the date of notice to him for making payment of such amount.
- (2) If the allottee of the final plot fails to make payment within the period stipulated under sub-section (1) the planning and development authority shall take possession of part of the final plot equivalent to the value of amount payable and the owner shall be bound to execute sale deed of such part in favour of planning and development authority and on execution of the sale deed such land shall vest with the planning and development authority free from all incumbrances.

- (3) The planning and development authority shall be free to use, develop or sell by auction such land to generate funds for implementation of the development plan.
- (4) The area of the final plot to be transferred to the planning and development authority shall be based on the rates of the final plot in their undeveloped state as determined by the Project Planner under section 88 of this Act.
- (5) If the allottee of final plot on receipt of notice under sub-section (1) opts for transfer of part of final plot in lieu of amount payable under sub-section (1) the provisions of sub-section (2), (3), and (4) shall be applicable.

Power of planning
and development authority
to make agreement.

95A.

- (1) The planning and development authority shall be competent to make any agreement with any person in respect of any matter which is to be provided for in the land pooling scheme subject to the power of the government to modify or disallow such agreement and unless it is otherwise expressly provided therein, such agreement shall take effect on and after the day on which the land pooling scheme comes into force.
- (2) Such an agreement shall not in any way affect the determination of the matters as stated in sub-section (3) of section 70A or the right of third parties, but it shall be binding on the parties to the agreement:

Provided that, if any agreement contains any provisions which are inconsistent with the land pooling scheme as published by the Project Planner under section 71A, such an agreement shall be void:

Provided further that, if the agreement is modified by the government, either party shall have the option of avoiding it, if it so elects.

Recovery of arrears.

96A.

Any sum due to the planning and development authority under the provisions of this Act or any rule or any regulation made thereunder, shall be a first charge on the plot on which it is due, subject to the prior payment of the land revenue, if any, due to the government thereon and if it is not paid on demand on the day on which it becomes due or on the day fixed by the planning and development authority, shall be recoverable by the planning and development authority, as arrears of land revenue.

Execution of works
in the land pooling scheme by planning and development authority.

97A. (1)

The planning and development authority shall complete all the works provided in a land pooling scheme within the period stipulated under clause (i) of sub-section (3) of section 70A.

Provided that, in exceptional circumstances on application by the planning and development authority, the government may, by an order in writing specifying circumstances grant to the planning and development authority in this behalf further extension of time as it may deem fit.

If the planning and development authority fails to complete the work within the period stipulated or within the period extended under sub-section (1), the government may, notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), require the planning and development authority to complete the works within a further period as it may consider reasonable or appoint an officer to complete such works at the cost of the planning and development authority.

55. Delete Chapter VI together with all the sections contained therein and Add a new chapter VI titled, "PRIVATE AND JOINT SECTOR PARTICIPATION IN DEVELOPMENT" containing sections as under:

- (2) The metropolitan planning committee, or the district planning committee or, as the case may be, the planning and development authority may, after making such enquiry as it considers necessary, by an order in writing:
 - (a) grant a licence in the prescribed form after the applicant has furnished to it a bank guarantee equivalent to ten per cent of the estimated cost of the development work and has entered into an agreement with it containing such details as may be considered necessary including provisions for ensuring:
 - (i) that the development work shall be within the framework of the approved plan and shall conform to the provisions of the development control rules and applicable building rules bye-laws: and
 - (ii) that the time schedule within which the development work is to be completed shall be adhered to;
 - (b) or refuse to grant a licence after affording the applicant an opportunity of being heard.
- (3) No licence shall be granted when the estimated cost of the development work exceeds:
 - (a) Rupees ten crores without the prior approval of the Director of Town Planning;
 - (b) Rupees twentyfive crores, without the approval of the Government.
- (4) The licence so granted shall be valid for a period of three years. It may, however, be renewed for reasons to be recorded in writing from time to time for a period not exceeding one year on payment of prescribed fee.

Additional provisions 101A.
where cost of development work is to be realised in advance.

Where a development work envisages realisation in advance of the cost of development from the prospective allottees, the promotor shall deposit an amount equivalent to twentyfive per cent of the sum collected, from time to time, by him from the prospective allottees, within a period of ten days of its realisation, in a separate account to be maintained in a scheduled bank and pledged to the metropolitan planning committee, the district planning committee or as the case may be, the planning and development authority. This amount can only be withdrawn on completion of the development work.

Provisions for economically weaker sections.

102A. (1)

Where a development work for which licence is granted envisages provision of developed plots or built-up space, such percentage of the plots or built-up space shall be reserved for economically weaker sections of the society, as may be mutually agreed, and the cost of development of such reserved developed plot or built-up space shall be fully or partly, as may be agreed, distributed over developed plots or the built spaces meant for allottees other than economically weaker sections.

The developed plots or built space reserved for economically weaker sections of the society shall be allotted by the promoter to only those beneficiaries who are identified by the metropolitan planning committee, or the district planning committee or as the case may be, the planning and development authority at such cost as may be mutually agreed.

Recovery of capital or maintenance cost of amenities.

103A.

Where a licence has been granted for providing or maintaining or both providing and maintaining any amenity, utility, service or facility, the metropolitan planning committee, the district planning committee or, as the case may be, the planning and development authority may permit the promoter to recover the capital and maintenance cost by way of collection of users' charges as may be agreed upon in the manner prescribed under regulations.

Private sector land pooling scheme by Association of Original Plot Owners.

104A.

A registered Association of Original Plot Owners (hereinafter called the Association) may frame a land pooling scheme within the framework of an approved plan of the local planning area containing such particulars and details as provided in sections 66A, 67A and 70A by engaging a qualified town planner.

Provided that the lands covered by such land pooling scheme shall, as far as possible be compact and contiguous and must be approachable by an existing means of access.

Provided further that the total area of such land pooling scheme for residential development shall not be less than ten hectares and for commercial development not less than one hectare.

Submission of private sector land pooling scheme to the planning and development authority.

105A. (1)

After the land pooling scheme has been prepared under section 104A, the Association shall pay the developmental charges as applicable under Chapter VIC and may submit to the planning and development authority with such number of copies of the land pooling scheme along with an application in such form and accompanied by such fee and documents as may be prescribed.

On receipt of the land pooling scheme under sub-section (1) the planning and development authority may after making such enquiry as it may consider fit, approve it with or without modification and thereupon submit the scheme to the government under sub-section (2) of section 72A together with report of its enquiry for approval.

Provided that in the case of any modifications, the Association shall modify the land pooling scheme in accordance with instructions of the planning and development authority before its submission to the government for approval.

Approval of private sector land pooling scheme by government.

The government may approve the land pooling scheme received under sub-section (2) of section 105A with or without modifications. On receipt of the approval and after getting the modifications, if any, incorporated by the Association, the planning and development authority, by notification in the Official Gazette shall publish the approval of the government.

Provided that the publication of the approval shall not be made unless the Association enters into agreement with the planning and development authority that all amenities, utilities, services and facilities as contained in the approved land pooling scheme shall be provided and maintained by the Association at its own cost, and the lands reserved therefor shall not be otherwise disposed of, or sub-divided. In case of default, provisions of section 50A shall be applicable.

- (2) The land pooling scheme shall come into force from the date of publication of notification in the Official Gazette under section (1). From this date all rights in the original plots which have been reconstituted as final plots shall stand determined and the final plots shall become subject to the rights settled in the approved land pooling scheme and the land records shall be changed accordingly by the concerned authority.
- (3) Immediately after the notification of the approval of the land pooling scheme under sub-section (i), the Association shall hand over the possession of the final plots to the owners to whom they are allotted in the approved land pooling scheme.
- (4) The provisions of chapter IV shall, mutatis mutandis, apply to the private sector land pooling scheme area in respect of control of development and use of land.

Development works
in joint-sector.

107A.

A metropolitan planning committee, a district planning committee or, a planning and development authority may enter into collaboration with a promoter or a national or international agency to jointly undertake implementation of any development work within the framework of an approved plan on such terms and conditions as may be mutually agreed. Such collaboration may include provision for facilities including shelter for economically weaker sections or sharing of developed plots and built spaces or sharing of profits.

Provided that where the metropolitan planning committee or the district planning committee enters into such a collaboration it shall not itself undertake execution of any development work. Its role shall be that of a facilitator only.

Provided further that where the collaboration is with an international agency, prior approval of the government shall be necessary.

Rules for regulating development by private and joint sector.

108A.

The government shall frame rules for regulating development works by private-sector and under joint-sector and also private sector land pooling scheme.

Reference to Arbitrator in case of disputes.

109A.

If any dispute arises out of any agreement entered with the promoter by the metropolitan planning committee, the district planning committee or, as the case may be, by the planning and development authority shall be referred to the arbitrator appointed by the government under the Indian Arbitration Act 1940.
